Summary: On 12/14/2015 at about 7:09 PM, Napa Police Department officers responded to Nob Hill at 611 Trancas Ave for a theft of high end wine that had just occurred. The store had detained one of the suspects and the other two had fled in a vehicle. A Napa Sheriff's deputy stopped the suspect vehicle south on S/R 29 near S/R 121. This vehicle was occupied by Ngyen and Ung. Fourteen bottles of stolen wine from Nob Hill was located inside the vehicle. Approximately 60 bottles of wine were located in the vehicle approximate value of over $4000. This wine was determined to be stolen from various stores in Napa earlier in the evening and potentially other stores in several different counties. Cocaine and individually packaged baggies of Methamphetamine was located. Napa Police Department investigators responded out to the scene and took over the investigation. The suspect detained in the store has not been officially identified, that investigation is continuing. Ngyen and Ung were booked at NCDC.
